

Back Light Control System

Preventing intrusive light

As an option, the LensoFlex®2 modules can be equipped with a Back Light Control system. This additional feature minimises light spill from the back of the luminaire to avoid intrusive light towards buildings.

Light distribution without Back Light Control

Light distribution with Back Light Control