

Selective Dynamic Lumen Output (SDLO)

A Selective Dynamic Lumen Output Allows The Luminous Intensity To Be Adjusted According To The Traffic Density.

Dimming profiles can be programmed to provide just a little light at night when it is quiet and more light during rush hour.

This is done in accordance with international lighting standards.

